

MEXICO FAX TO DAVID A. MELTZER---JULY 14, 1991---10 PAGES

1. UWA

1. Results

a. Sunday, July 7, 1991, at el Toreo de Cuatro Caminos in Naucalpan, Mexico, Mexico

1. The Main Event: Dos Caras, el Villano III and el Gran Hamada defeated Canek, the Killer, and The Pegasus Kid two falls to one via disqualification in the third fall.
 - 1: el Villano II pinned The Killer with an "enredada" (small package) while simultaneously Dos Caras pinned Canek also with a small package to end the first fall.
 - 2: Dos Caras and el Villano III were counted out against The Pegasus Kid and Canek, respectively, to end the second fall.
 - 3: Canek removed Dos Caras's mask in frustration while being double teamed by Dos Caras and el Villano III to end the third fall and the match.

A fair match. One funny thing happened. At the end of the first fall, Dos Caras removed Canek's mask, Canek ripped up Dos Caras's mask real bad, el Villano III removed The Pegasus Kid's mask, and The Pegasus Kid removed el Villano II's mask (not funny so far, huh?) But Pegasus and Villano looked at the masks they had just won and they put on each other's mask and wore it the rest of the match! So Villano III had on his outfit but Pegasus's mask, and vice versa.

2. The Semifinal: Fishman, Doctor Wagner junior, and el Negro Casas defeated Enrique Vera, el Villano IV, and el Villano V two falls to one in a "good match."
3. The Tercera: los Neos Misioneros de la Muerte: el Signo, The Black Power, and Miguel "el Negro" Navarro defeated Kato Kung Lee II, el Celestial, and el Villano I two falls to one in a fair match.
4. The Segunda: Arandu, el Engendro, and el Babe Face defeated Valente Fernandez, el Fantasma, and el Pantera del Ring two falls to one in a very good match, where el Pantera del Ring was said to look extra good and Arandu looked better than expected.
5. The Inicial: Katana, el Matematico I, and el Marlin defeated Zeus, el Falcon, and el Angel Mortal two falls to one.

An average card.

3. el Principe Maya (Canek's brother) versus el Hijo de Super Zan.
4. Frayle Top versus el Hombre del Fuego.

g. 7/14/91 at el Toreo de Cuatro Caminos in Naucalpan, Mexico, Mexico

1. The Main Event: Canek and The Killer versus Dos Caras and Mil Mascaras. (This may be changed to a six man with one more added per team). Canek had an interview in the 7/12 paper saying "Mil and Dos are not rivals for me and my title" so he is setting up their feud. I really think the UWA will run big from now til 8/23 when the EMLL gets back to la Arena Mexico; then EMLL will run big until 9/20 (its stadium card), then both will go toe to toe til December.
2. The Semifinal: Kokina returns in the semi (that's all the paper said about this card, this match, or Kokina.)

4. Super Gallo versus el Simbolo.

h. 7/12/91 at la Arena Puente Negro in Mexico City, Distrito Federal, Mexico THIS CARD STARTS AT 5:00 IN THE AFTERNOON!

1. Lizmark and el Rayo de Jalisco junior versus los Hermanos Dinamita: Mascara Ano Dos Mil and Universo Dos Mil.

i. Friday, June 12, 1991, at la Arena Coliseo in Mexico City, Distrito Federal, Mexico (Galavision) THIS CARD STARTS AT 8:30 IN THE EVENING!

1. The Main Event: Atlantis, la Mano Negra, and la Mascara Sagrada versus Fuerza Guerrera, Pierroth junior, and el Gran Markus junior. Markus is a last minute substitute for el Satanico, who was injured fairly severely in his ribs (don't know if they're broken or not) last week in a spot with his partner for a match el Angel Blanco junior.
2. The Semifinal: Los Hermanos Guerrero: Chavo, Mando, and Eddy versus el Cachorro Mendoza, Apolo Dantes, and Javier "Tijeras" Cruz (that's his new nickname because he is turning heel on Apolo Dantes as we speak; "tijeras" is the type of tiara a woman would wear, while "monaraca" is a more manly word meaning king). You may remember Cruz and Dantes had "disagreements" during last week's Galavision show; during the week they have had more and are telling the reporters that a goal of theirs for this summer is to get each other's hair in a hair match. In fact, paco Alonso is apparently going to copy the Million Dollar belt gimmick by having Cruz wear a crown called "el Tijeras de Oro" (the crown of gold), and call himself that too, so this is what became of el Tiburon Rojo, and also what became of Paco's trip to Sacramento...Otherwise, this is a tecnico versus tecnico match.
3. The Tercera: Masakre, M S 1, and "Chacho" Herodes versus (Chacho means servant; he plays a roman slave gimmick) versus Anibal (nearing age 51 and with all the bumps in this style I'd think this group has the fewest over 50 guys around), Ringo Mendoza, and Casanova el Vampiro Canadiense. See "news and notes" for the dates, but this is Vampiro's last date in until the EMLL returns to la Arena Mexico in August.
4. The Segunda: los Destruktores: Tony Arce, el Vulcano, plus la Bestia Salvaje (it will be good to see Salvaje again and usually or EMLL he has been the third man when Tony Arce and el Vulcano are in six man matches) versus los Metales: Oro, Plata, and Platino, three young guys who are fair but usually will win one fall with great dives. This undoubtedly will be the kind of match EMLL does a lot where the young guys are in there or experience; they'll dominate all three falls but the rudos as a reward for their teaching will probably get the win. we'll just have to see, but that is a regular pattern with the EMLL with their really young guys in the major arenas like la Arena Coliseo.
5. The Inicial: el Justiciero and el Solar II versus el Arcangel de la Muerte and el Comando Ruso.

j. 7/12/91 at la Discotec Metropoli in Netzahualcoyotl, Mexico, Mexico. THIS CARD IS SCHEDULE TO BEGIN AT 11:30 PM FRIDAY NIGHT! (Note: This disco is right by the airport, which is half in Mexico City and half in Netzahualcoyotl; Metropoli is just barely on the Netzahualcoyotl side. Despite its long name, Netzahualcoyotl city is not to be dismissed; it is the largest suburb in North America with nearly 2.5 million people and would rank as the 4th largest city in Mexico and one of the top 15 in all of North America by itself; but it's also home to some of the most horribly poor people in all of the continent as well. This arena is also by the airport in a nicer section of town. Naucalpan is a much more prosperous suburb on the west side of Mexico City.)

1. Atlantis, la Mascara Sagrada, and Casanova el Vampiro Candiense versus Pierroth junior, Fabuloso Blondy, and el Angel Blanco junior. To me, and to a lot of local fans, Fabuloso Blondy has "shot his wad" as an attraction. When he lost the hair match (that's his gimmick, the blond American) to the Mexican Indian Ringo Mendoza, that was it. I'd have brought in somebody else to try the American pretty boy routine and use Blondy for something else (manager would be better than this).
2. Ringo Mendoza, Eddy Guerrero, and la Mano Negra versus "los Mosqueteros del Diablo," los Brazos: el Brazo, el Brazo de Oro, and el Brazo de Plata.
3. Oro and Plata versus el Septiembre Negro junior and el Guerrero de la Muerte.
4. las Hermanas Alonso: Zuleyma and Janeth versus la Sirenita and Lola "Dinamita" Gonzales.

k. 7/12/91 in Zumpango, Mexico, Mexico (8:30 PM)

1. Octagon and Black Magic versus Jerry Estrada and Fabuloso Blondy. I don't know this for a fact but they are keeping Octagon away from the big cards in Mexico City, and I'm guessing for two reasons: 1) to fix his swelled head; 2) to make him a bigger draw when they return to la Arena Mexico or maybe even the stadium card, where his "return" in a mask match with Fuerza Guerrera would be a really big boost for ticket sales.
2. Juan "el Huracan" Sevilla and la Aguila Solitaria versus Super Brazo and Shadito Cruz junior (Note: this means the EMLL has now signed away all six wrestling "Brazos" or Alvarado Nieves brothers, which is a big coup. The sixth is Danny Boy of los Arqueros, real name Aaron Alvarado Nieves.)
3. Rommel (didn't World War II end 46 years ago?) and Soberbio versus los ABC I and II.
4. Rudy Lopes versus el Bufalo Negro.

1. 7/14/91 at la Arena San Lorenzo in San Lorenzo, Mexico, Mexico

1. For the Mexican National Welterweight Wrestling Championship Belt: Champion Ciclon Ramirez versus challenger el Supremo II.

2. Mogur, Anibal, and el Dandy versus Masakre, el Hombre Bala and M S 1.

3. Erick "el Canelo" Casas, el Cadaver de Ultratumba, and el Canalla I versus Astro Boy, la Mascara, and el Halcon Dorado junior.

4. el Chamaco Segundo and la Magia Azul versus el Rey Aguila and Comodin.

5. el Misterio Tapatipo versus Veneno. (p.s., Tapatío and words like it mean "masked")

2. Luis Arias is the name of a small time promoter in Queretaro. He ran his first card in that city in July 1965 at a tiny building called "el Audetorio General Arteaga" and has run there every week since. This Saturday, July 13, 1991, he has scheduled his 26th anniversary card. He is affiliated with EMLL and worked in the past with Salvador Luthherorth. Here is the problem. Because it's such a small arena Pco Alonso Lutherroth, the numero uno guy of EMLL, won't send him any big stars for his biggest show of the year. Arias complained to the paper that "The syndicate requests (too) much money" for the stars and even for the building insurance bond (don't want a riot when 300 people want to see Octagon and los Brazos in a 750 seat building, do we? Then the promoter would have to pay damages...) So, Arias has this card but no line-up yet; he doesn't want to run the same guys the fans can see every week, and of course he'd like to up the ticket prices a little this one week only (although for that arean in that town, the TOP ringside ticket would normally be under two dollars).
3. The EMLL announced it will return to la Arena Mexico on Friday, August 23, 1991, for a nearly four month run (until Sunday, December 15, 1991). Of course on Friday, September 20, 1991, they will have the big stadium card. Foreigners they want to bring in include: Salomon Grundy and Aaron Grundy (but not until around 9/20), Casanova el Vampiro Candiense, The Cannibal Bookers (an EXACT clone of the Moondogs, though I don't recognize either of the two of them when they printed their picture in the paper 7/11/91), Nitron, and a new small wrestler, el Hijo de Tigre Pintito (a children's gimmick, means the son of the mischevious tiger.)
4. The paper really ragged on el Rayo de Jalisco junior this week. It seems he no-showed a card Monday, July 8, 1991, at "el Audetorio de Cuautitlan" in Cuautitlan, Mexico. Then the paper ragged on Octagon, who has no-showed FIVE cards in the interior of Mexico this year.
5. The once-lost el Caballo Loco returns to the bull ring el Cortijo in the Romero Rubio barrio of Mexico City (right by the airport and 1.5 miles from Arena Netzahualcoyotl) on Wednesday, July 24, 1991. Caballo Loco is a rudo, 177 cm tall and weighing 96 kg. The paper interviewed him 7/10/91 and printed it 7/11/91. Even though it will be an EMLL function, he hopes to team with Cuchillo.
6. A new ladies' trio has formed: las Guerreras: made up of usually Wendy, la Guerrera Purpura, and Martha Villalobos, sometimes with la Pantera Surena and/or with la Olimpica.
7. Mario Prado junior changed styles to a tecnico.
